

Wow, it's made from wood!

Print. Exercise your mind and learn about the products – some common and some lesser known – that come from farmed trees. Then recycle!

Across

- 1 The perfect cool treat for a hot summers day, just make sure you keep it in the freezer until you are ready to eat it. (3,5)
- 4 Fence and telephone _____. This forestry product looks like it has come straight from the tree!
- 7 By hand or in a machine, you will need this to get your clothes clean. (7,6)
- 9 A green energy alternative to coal and oil.
- 10 A non-nutritive alternative to putting sugar in your coffee.
- 11 A daily supplement to ensure you get all your _____ and minerals.
- 14 A bathroom essential we simply could not live without. (6,5)
- 17 A green alternative to your drinks bottle, only these are biodegradable.
- 20 Smart phones, computers and TV's all have an _____, _____. (1,1,1,5)
- 24 Thick black and sticky substance used to cover ropes and twine, and roads!
- 25 Paper _____ is renewable and recyclable.
- 26 One of the three major tree species commercially planted in South Africa. This evergreen tree, with its distinctive needles is often associated with Christmas.
- 28 The practice of growing and farming trees.
- 29 A way to bring soothing aromas into your home or during a massage. (9,4)

Down

- 2 Thicker than paper, no school project or birthday would be the same without this.
- 3 When you don't have wood to braai with you can use these black bricks.
- 4 Layers of wooden veneer, glued together to produce this super-strong material that is found in homes, aircrafts and on boats.
- 5 The name given to tree trunks that are suitable for cutting up into lumber. (3,4)
- 6 Wipe a surface with this to prevent the spread of germs.
- 8 A delicious addition to any cake, the _____ vanillin is the key ingredient used in most vanilla essence.
- 12 It comes in a tub, tube, jar or bottle, you rub it into our skin to keep it soft, strong and supple.
- 13 Forests absorb this gas from the air and store it in their wood, as a result they are helping us combat climate change. (6,7)
- 15 The proper name for a blue gum, one of the three major tree species commercially farmed in South Africa. The oil from this tree is often used to help a blocked nose.
- 16 Bright red or pastel pink, the perfect way to frame a smile.
- 18 On a canvas or a wall, this is the perfect way to add a splash of colour.
- 19 Used to prolong the shelf-life of food.
- 21 We wear these everyday, and at night too, to cover our skin.
- 22 We breathe in the _____ that trees and plants release.
- 23 Essential items in any baby bag before successful potty training.
- 27 Another commercially planted tree species in South Africa. Its bark is used in the production of tannin.